DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USPN 4,962,572 to Prentkowski. Prentkowski discloses a tongue (14) including a web adjuster (40) comprising; a first horizontal member (44) having first and second ends (48, 54); a second horizontal member (38) having third and fourth ends (62, 64); a first vertical member (66) extending between the first and third ends; a second vertical member (70) extending between the second and fourth ends; a first ear (34) extending away from the junction between the second horizontal member and the first vertical member; and a second ear (34) extending away from the junction between the second horizontal member and the second vertical member; and a third horizontal member (32) having a first substantially c-shaped end (82) and a second substantially c-shaped end (84); wherein the first substantially c-shaped end engages the first vertical member; wherein the second substantially c-shaped end engages the second vertical member; and wherein the third horizontal member is free to slide between the first and second horizontal members while engaging the first and second vertical members.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. In particular, Kasai, Kotikovsky et al and Finken et al all disclose buckle connecting strap devices capable of meeting the limitations of applicant's claims whether alone or in combination thereof.
